Focusing on What Matters Most

Moderna
Drug technology company

No. 1 on CNBC's
2015 Disrupter 50 list

"Since moving to Office 365, we're not worrying about the technology. Instead, we are focusing on enabling our vision to pioneer a new way to treat serious illness and make a difference in the world."

- John Reynders, Chief Information Officer, Moderna

Dakine
Alternative sports brand

An industry leader in action sports gear since 1979

"I wanted to find business productivity solutions that reflect our corporate culture: people are laid back here, but dedicated. We expect to work when and where we need to—on the slopes, the water, the trails, or the beach."

- Nic Richards, IT Manager, Dakine

DeKalb Mechanical
HVAC mechanical contractor

DeKalb's largest residential
HVAC contractor

"After equipping 17 field crew members with tablets to access information from the cloud-based storage in Office 365 ... we are avoiding a $3,000 a week, or $156,000 a year loss in productivity costs."

- Stephen Doonan, President, DeKalb Mechanical

Dogeared
Jewelry maker

Certified B-Corporation dedicated to handcrafting everything locally

"I saw that Office 365 was a more robust tool than Google Apps, and I knew that all our employees would be more comfortable working with its integrated components."

- Chad Berryhill, IT Director, Dogeared
